

AAMI STRADBROKE SCHOOLS PAINTING COMPETITION

The AAMI Stradbroke Schools Painting competition is creating awareness about racing amongst the youth of today. Primary school students are encouraged to research and learn about the Queensland racing industry and transfer this knowledge and understanding to their finished painting projects. The painting projects are completed on life-size fibreglass horses. The theme for this year's competition is 'The Carnival - What does it mean to you?' This competition, made possible by AAMI, funds schools projects and needs, awarding cash prizes to the winner and runners up. Each school also receives a Certificate of Participation. The finished school paintings are integrated into events during the 2012 Brisbane Racing Carnival and displayed at both Eagle Farm and Doomben Racecourses throughout the year.
